Exams

During the course, there is ample time to practice as well the theory as the teaching. Learned competences are tracked. In case a competence lacks behind, the student will be informed around the 9th module about what to improve. At the end of the training, there is one theory exam and one practical exam in the form of giving a yoga lesson. Students are prepared for the exams during the course. The theoretical exam is based on the teacher manual and the yoga lesson is a combination of practices learned and practiced during the course.

Any resits

In case of not passing an exam, the student will be able to take a resit. A theoretical resit can be done at the living place of the teacher and the costs are €50,-/ resit. A practical resit can be done in Wageningen or at the living place of the teacher. The student will rent a suitable place and make sure that at least 4 participants will join the lesson. The fee for the teacher to attend and assess a practical resit is €150,-.

Complaints

Complaints about the execution of the agreement must be submitted fully and clearly described to the provider as soon as the customer has discovered or could have discovered the defects. The provider will treat complaints confidentially and will give a motivated answer within 2 weeks.

In case the customer is not satisfied with the handling of the complaint, the customer has the possibility to take the complaint to Yoga Alliance, who will handle the complaint. The decision of Yoga Alliance about the complaint is binding to all parties involved.

Complaints about invoices must, if possible, be submitted to the provider in writing and properly explained within 10 working days after receipt of the relevant invoice.

The consequences of not submitting a complaint on time will be charged to the customer.

All complaints and their method of handling will be registered and kept during the handling of the complaint.
